

Holodomor. Technology of Genocide, 2005.

a film from Ukraine

From the National Television Company of Ukraine, a documentary for TV

Ukrainian English subtitles: English voice-over and subtitles

A detailed step-by-step factual account of how the artificial mass famine of 1932-1933 in Ukraine, the Holodomor, was conceived, executed, covered up; who its masterminds, perpetrators, and apologists were. Against who it was directed. The film is rich with historical documentary information and some riveting eye-witness accounts of the survivors. It is a must-see.

To be shown on Sunday, October 25, 2009, 3:00-5:00 PM
in the Class of 1947 Meeting Room, Homer Babbidge Library University of Connecticut, Storrs

Special guest: Dr. Yuri Shevchuk, Lecturer of Ukrainian Language and Culture at Columbia University

in conjunction with the Exhibit

The Holomor: Famine and Fiction

October 19 – December 18, 2009

Babbidge Library Plaza, West Alcove, UConn, Storrs

<http://lib.uconn.edu/about/exhibits/>

contact: iana.babij@uconn.edu